

1. Delay the vote until the public has had a chance to review & comment on the final draft.
2. Reject the proposal. It permits greater monopolization of local markets.